

NCBC Articulation Agreement - GSSM

Northern California Bible College has assessed the transferability of Global Awakening School of Supernatural Ministry's (GSSM) core curriculum. Dr. Mike Hutchings leads and assesses the program at GSSM and provided this detailed summary of the student learning environment.

Summary of GSSM Curricular Requirements assessed by Dr. Mike Hutchings.

- Students are onsite, Tuesday through Friday, for four and one half hours (12-13 week fall term, 16-17 weeks Spring term).
- This time is filled with testimonies, worship, prayer, and guest speakers
- Students must participate in a missions trip
- Students are required to read 15-20 books (no list was provided)
- Students are required to answer five questions on each book
- Year 1 - Students are required to write three 3-page response papers
- Year 2 - students must create three teaching/preaching outlines
- There are three outreaches per month

The GSSM program has been assessed to have specific learning objectives and categories of learning. This is 30 weeks of instruction at 12-15 hours of direct lecture/discussion per week (a maximum of 36 quarter units per year can be awarded but would need sufficient homework and writing requirements).

Year one of GSSM will earn students the following undergraduate credits. For graduate credits they will need to work with an NCBC professor to submit a capstone research paper for each of these courses to receive transfer credit. (Other institutions have granted 9 semester credits for these courses, which is equivalent to 13.5 quarter units.)

- Power Evangelism (3 quarter units)
- Healing Ministry (3 quarter units)
- Prophetic Ministry (3 quarter units)
- Practical Ministry Electives (6 quarter units)

Year two of GSSM will earn students the following undergraduate credits. For graduate credits they will need to work with an NCBC professor to submit a capstone research paper for each of these courses to receive transfer credit.

- Revival History (3 quarter units)
- Homiletics (3 quarter units)
- Freedom Ministry (3 quarter units)
- Practical Ministry Electives (6 quarter units)

GSSM ONLINE: There is no verification or evidence of participation or reflection. At this time NCBC cannot assess credits for the online program. This is an amazing program and opportunity for the online community but does not necessarily meet the student-professor interaction requirements.
